PLEASE SIGN AND RETURN WITH YOUR 2018 INCOME TAX INFORMATION

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of my engagement with you for the year ended December 31, 2018 and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide. To ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, I ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your 2018 federal and state income tax returns from information which you will furnish to us. It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. Unless otherwise instructed by you in writing, we are required to file all qualified returns electronically.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations and/or irregularities, should any exist. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as reasonably determined to be necessary for preparation of the income tax returns.

You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review the returns carefully before you sign them or the electronic filing authorizations. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions for a period of at least seven years. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority.

Federal and state laws provide various taxpayer and preparer penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. The laws also provide various taxpayer and preparer penalties which may be imposed regarding questionable positions taken on a tax return without adequate disclosure.

I may use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between a taxing authority's interpretation of the law and other supportable positions. I will discuss any significant issues with you and will offer my recommendation or advice. However, the final decision will be yours as the taxpayer. If necessary, we will include a disclosure statement within your returns to identify questionable positions which we mutually agree to take on your returns.

My fees for these services will be based upon our time and expertise required plus certain out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation of your returns and may be paid by cash, check or credit card. Invoices outstanding over 30 days are subject to finance charges assessed at the rate of 1.0% per month. Delinquent accounts may also subject you to legal or collection costs.

Your returns may be selected for review by federal or state taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, I will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for my services and expenses incurred.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign and date this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office with your 2018 income tax information.

If there are other tax returns you expect us to prepare, such as returns for family members, US Treasury Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts, gift tax returns or your Connecticut use tax return, please inform us by noting so at the end of this letter.

Your failure to sign this engagement letter, combined with your signing of your tax returns and/or electronic filing authorization constitutes a full understanding and acceptance of the terms and conditions of this engagement letter.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for continuing to select the firm of Joseph A. Miranda LLC to provide tax services for you. Please don't hesitate to call me if you have any questions regarding this engagement letter or any aspect of my services.

Very truly yours,

Joseph A Miranda, CPA
